St. John's
Newfoundland.

Mr. Jack Fagan or Mr. Gordon Fitzpatrick,
c/o 101 Bonaventure Avenue,
St. John's.

Dear Sir:

Every person summoned and who neglects or refuses to attend and be examined or to bring with him such papers, plans, documents and things, as he is required to bring, is guilty of an offence, so states the Statutes of Newfoundland 1957.

WHEREAS in respect of a Summons duly delivered to me on or about March 7th, 1968 requiring my appearance in proper person at a reunion dinner to be held in St. John's, Etc., etc., etc.

And WHEREAS I am unable to offer any plea or justifiable excuse respecting any objections or otherwise abstaining from such a reunion.

BE IT THEREFORE stated that I MALCOLM SQUIRES, Ex Ranger, No. 115, confirm and ratify that I shall present myself at a reunion dinner, to be held in the spring, as heretofore stated, and in addition to observing the requirements of conditions laid down for that purpose.

MAY YOU HAVE SUCCESS IN THIS UNDERTAKING.

Signed:

Malcolm Squires
